

TRAVELLING TO SEVILLE

SEVILLE IS ART, HISTORY AND CULTURE Seville is situated in the southwest of Spain within the autonomous region of Andalusia, famous for its sun , folklore, hospitality, bullfighting and wines, also for its third millennium culture and technological progress, unspoilt countryside, and modern urban development, open country and cosmopolitan beaches. Only one hour to Portugal and Morocco, it is near to the legendary cities of Cordoba and Granada, and surrounded by fascinating historic towns.

We are less than three hours from Madrid by AVE (High Speed Train) and two hours from Malaga international airport. Seville also has its own international airport.

With its easy-going lifestyle, this Southern Spanish city is a true metropolis with a population of 800,000 inhabitants (more than a million including its urban community). Seville has undergone profound changes in the last few years, thanks to the 1992 World Expo. The city has been endowed, in effect, with infrastructures which have turned it into a modern city ready to take on the challenges of the third millennium. Seville has, nevertheless, succeeded in conserving its role as guardian of the most deeply rooted traditions of Spanish culture. Its prestigious monuments (the Cathedral, the Giralda, the Golden Tower, the Alcazar Palace, etc.) bear witness to this fact. Its popular festivals (Holy Week and the April fair) continue to enliven the city which never ceases to amaze and captivate travellers. It is certain that life in Seville has something truly special about it, what Sevillans call "el duende", or a certain magical quality. Its liveliness and good climate are permanent; enjoyed both day and night. Its cuisine is considered a ritual by all, right down to anyone who wishes to take their first step along "the route of tapas" which will lead them "de tasquita en tasquita" (from tavern to tavern) savouring dishes full of both flavour and originality.

Seville is also known for its two universities of more than 70,000 students, its theatres with first class performances and concerts, flamenco "tablaos" venues, and cinemas, not to mention its famous bullring (La Real Maestranza) which figures among the most prestigious in the world. In short, in Seville, it is as if modernity and tradition have joined paths toward the future.

WELCOME TO IELE ... Spanish is the second language of the world as a vehicle of international communication, the third as the political, economic and cultural language and the fourth by number of speakers, with 380 million speakers who use it as a first language. Its knowledge permits one to communicate with millions of people.

Our years of experience have permitted us to create a program of education specified for each person. One achievement of which we are very proud is that more than half of our students come to IELE because they have heard of us through previous students, many of whom visit us again. This is very rewarding. In our classrooms, students from different countries as well as of distinct races and beliefs, attend classes which are open to all cultures.

If you wish to learn Spanish in a warm and informal atmosphere under the guide of friendly and professional staff, IELE is the right choice for you. We will do everything possible to make your stay here an enjoyable and successful one.

Welcome and thank you for choosing IELE.

IELE arranges the most suitable type of accommodation for your needs. Accommodation search and reservation is optional and carries an additional finders fee. Accommodation is reserved once enrolment is received.

1. In selected families:

These are families carefully selected by IELE. Our families are chosen for their clean and comfortable houses and for the friendship and welcome they give you in their home. The majority of our families are located a short walk from the school, although for some it is necessary to catch the bus. You can choose between half board (breakfast and dinner) or full board (breakfast, lunch and dinner). A single room is always offered unless you expressly wish to stay with a friend or partner in a shared room. You can also choose to stay with or without children, with or without animals and where smoking is or is not permitted.

If you are not completely satisfied with your Spanish family after the first three days' stay, it is possible to change to another family.

2. Flatshare with Spaniards:

Spaniards who work or study and share their flats with other Spaniards sometimes also choose to share with foreigners. You will have access to the kitchen and all other facilities, staying in a single room unless you expressly wish to share a double room with a friend. This type of accommodation gives you independence and contact with Spaniards at the same time.

3. Your own flat:

Central flats for 1 or 2 people with fully equipped kitchens and bathrooms. You can choose between 2 types of apartments, whose prices vary in accordance with their facilities and dimensions. This type of accommodation is ideal if you wish to be more independent or if you are accompanied by a person who is not participating on a course.

We are very happy to come and fetch you from the airport or station when you arrive and will deliver you to your chosen accommodation. This is an optional service with an additional charge.
